Ashkenaz was founded in 1973 by David Nadel, a social activist and folk dancer who performed with the Westwind International Folk Ensemble. Ashkenaz is a nonprofit, 501(c)(3) organization.

Ashkenaz is all ages, all times. Kids and minors are always welcome. Those 12 or under are admitted free (unless otherwise noted).

Doors open ½ hour before showtimes or dance lessons. Ample parking is available after 9 pm in the lot across the street. Ashkenaz is wheelchair accessible.

Ashkenaz Café serves organic vegetarian food, beer, wine, and beverages during shows.

Advance tickets are available during shows or (for a fee) through TicketWeb.com, phone number 866-468-3399. Advance prices are valid until the day of the show.

Check Ashkenaz.com for updates to show and class schedules. Current show listings are also available by calling 510-525-5054.

For show booking or publicity matters, contact Kristen Sbrogna, Booking Manager, at booking@ashkenaz.com or 510-525-5099, ext. 2#. For studio or private party rentals, contact Sean Hodge, Interim Operations Manager, at sean@ashkenaz.com or ext. 3#.

The public is welcome at Ashkenaz board meetings, usually held on the third Monday of the month. Meetings take place in the Back Studio from 7:30 to 10 pm. From approximately 7:45 to 8:00, members of the public are welcome to make open comment.

Receive Ashkenaz's calendar by weekly e-mail or monthly postal mail. E-mail your delivery preference to susan@ashkenaz.com.

GET HERE!

By Car: Take I-80 to Gilman St. exit. East on Gilman (approx. 8 blocks) to San Pablo Ave. Turn right and park in the Walgreens/REI parking lot for evening events.

By Bus: AC Transit Lines 52, 72, 72M, 72R run north & south on San Pablo. Line 25 runs east & west on Gilman (daytime only). From Downtown Berkeley & UC: Line 52 circles the campus and goes to San Pablo & Gilman. If after midnight, All-Nighter Line 800 stops at San Pablo & Gilman en route between Richmond and San Francisco. More info at www.actransit.org.

By BART: From North Berkeley Station, transfer to AC Transit Line 52. Or walk (approx. 20 minutes) north on Sacramento or Acton to Cedar (2 blocks). Left on Cedar to Gilman (9 blocks). Right on Gilman to San Pablo (4 blocks). Note: Trains stop running from North Berkeley at 12:20 at night.

ASHKENEWZ: Giving Thanks; Share 'Naz Love; and more!

Thanks to LMI in Berkeley for beginning a partnership with Ashkenaz for Internet service and more! LMI is an independent, solar-assisted provider of Internet service, website hosting and development, computer repair, and consulting services. Check them out at www.LMI.net.

We would love help from our community in spreading the word about all the great events here. Join the newly relaunched Ashkenaz Street Team and get Ashkenaz calendars out into the world! Perks including show passes, warm fuzzies, and more will be yours. Contact Maddy at volunteer@ashkenaz.com.

Many thanks to our recent high school interns, Ceilidh Wolfe and Zoe Shay, for all the assistance, skill, and talent they brought to us this spring! For more information about internship opportunities at Ashkenaz, contact Sean at sean@ashkenaz.com.
